

JUDGE GIORGIO GAJA
International Court of Justice

Born in Lucerne, Switzerland, on 7 December 1939. Italian nationality.

Degree in law, University of Rome (1960). Libera docenza in International Law (1968).

Professor of International Law at the University of Florence Law School (since 1974).

Member of the International Law Commission (since 1999).

Member of the Institut de Droit International (since 1993).

Judge ad hoc of the International Court of Justice in four cases.

Visiting Professor at the Johns Hopkins University (1977-1978), the University of Geneva (1983 and 1985), the University of Paris I (1989 and 2000), the University of Aix-Marseille III (1992), the University of Michigan School of Law (1992), the Columbia Law School (1996) and the Graduate Institute of International Studies at Geneva (2001).