17. The Conference referred to the Committee of the Whole those draft articles on the law of treaties between States and international organizations or between international organizations adopted by the International Law Commission which required substantive consideration and also assigned to the Committee of the Whole the preparation of the preamble and of the final provisions of the Convention. It referred all other articles directly to the Drafting Committee, which was furthermore responsible for considering the draft articles referred to it by the Committee of the Whole and for co-ordinating and reviewing the drafting of all the texts adopted, as well as for the preparation of the Final Act of the Conference.
