Japan: draft resolution relating to article 66

[Original: English]

[20 March 1986]

The United Nations Conference on the Law of Treaties between States and International Organizations or between International Organizations,

Considering that, under the terms of article 66, paragraph 2, subparagraphs (b) and (d), of the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties between States and International Organizations or between International Organizations, a State party or certain international organization party to a dispute concerning the application or the interpretation of article 53 or 64 of the Convention may, through a Member State of the United Nations if necessary, ask the General Assembly or the Security Council to request an advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice,

Bearing in mind the particular importance of the role of the International Court of Justice as the principal judicial organ of the United Nations,

Considering further the importance for the proper operation of article 66 that the General Assembly or the Security Council should be in a position to respond promptly to such requests,

1. Requests the General Assembly and the Security Council to adopt appropriate procedures to enable them to respond promptly to any request for an advisory opinion submitted by a Party to the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties between States and International Organizations or between International Organizations in accordance with article 66, paragraph 2, subparagraphs (b) or (d), of the Convention;

2. Requests the Secretary-General of the United Nations to convey the terms of this resolution to the General Assembly and to the Security Council.

United Nations: draft resolution relating to the annex

[Original: English]

[20 March 1986]

The United Nations Conference on the Law of Treaties between States and International Organizations or between International Organizations,

Considering that, under the terms of paragraphs 9 and 14 of the annex to the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties between States and International Organizations or between International Organizations, the expenses of any arbitral tribunal and conciliation commission that may be set up under article 66 of the Convention shall be borne by the United Nations,

Requests the General Assembly of the United Nations to take note of and approve the provisions of paragraphs 9 and 14 of this annex.
