

copy

PERMANENT MISSION OF GREECE TO THE UNITED NATIONS

866 SECOND AVENUE • NEW YORK, NY 10017-2905

TEL: (212) 888-6900 • FAX: (212) 888-4440

E-MAIL: GREECE@UN.INT

F. 6116.61 / 172 / AS 3552 lis

The Permanent Mission of Greece to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and with reference to the latter's Note No.LA/COD/42 (C) dated 13 September 2002, has the honour to announce that the Government of Greece has decided to present the candidature of Professor Dr Ioannis Giannidis for the election of judges of the International Criminal Court.

Attached is a curriculum vitae of Professor Giannidis, distinguished both for his most prominent background in the field of Criminal Law and Philosophy of Law and his extensive legal experience. Dr Giannidis is teaching more than twenty years in the Faculty of Law at the University of Athens and has a long presence as an author. He currently leads one of the largest and most renowned law offices specializing in complicated, white-collar crimes and trials for terrorism (representing the victims' interests) and holds an excellent reputation among the judiciary and fellow-lawyers. He has academic and professional ties beyond the national borders and has often participated in national and international advisory committees.

The above-mentioned candidate is nominated for inclusion in List A.

The Permanent Mission of Greece to the United Nations avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Secretary-General of the United Nations the assurances of its highest consideration.

New York, 29 November 2002

The Secretary-General of the United Nations
New York
FAX: 963 1963

NOV 29
13137

25200-13142