Supplement No. 8

Volume V

Article 81

(Advance version, to be issued in volume V of Supplement 8 (forthcoming)

of the Repertory of Practice of United Nations Organs)

TEXT OF ARTICLE 81

The trusteeship agreement shall in each case include the terms under which the trust territory will be administered and designate the authority which will exercise the administration of the trust territory. Such authority, hereinafter called the administering authority, may be one or more states or the Organization itself.

Note

Since no agreements were proposed during the period covered by the present study, there were no decisions requiring treatment under this Article.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Studies under Article 81 in the Repertory have, in the past, treated questions regarding the terms under which trust territories are administered by designated administration authorities. Supplement 7 concentrated exclusively on the responsibilities of the United Nations over South West Africa, known since 1968 as Namibia. Namibia was admitted as a Member State of the United Nations on 23 April 1990 (Repertory of Practice of United Nations Organs, Volume I, Supplement 8, p. 4).
