Documents relating to an agenda item of legal interest
Consideration, pursuant to General Assembly resolution 2181 (XXI) of 12 December 1966, of principles of international law concerning friendly relations and co-operation among States in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations
(A) Consideration, in the light of the debate which took place in the Sixth Committee during the seventeenth, eighteenth, twentieth and twenty-first sessions of the General Assembly and in the 1964 and 1966 Special Committees, of the four principles listed below with a view to completing their formulation:
a. The principle that States shall refrain in their international relations from the threat or use of force against the territorial integrity and political independence of any State, or in any other manner inconsistent with the purpose of the United Nations;
b. The duty of States to co-operate with one another in accordance with the Charter;
c. The principle of equal rights and self-determination of peoples;
d. The principle that States shall fulfil in good faith the obligations assumed by them in accordance with the Charter [paragraph 5 of General Assembly resolution 2181 (XXI)].
(B) Consideration of proposals on the principle concerning the duty not to intervene in matters within the domestic jurisdiction of any State, in accordance with the Charter, with the aim of widening the area of agreement already expressed in General Assembly resolution 2131 (XX) [paragraph 6 of General Assembly resolution 2181 (XXI)].
(C) Consideration of any additional proposals with a view to widening the areas of agreement expressed in the formula-

CONCERNING FRIENDLY RELATIONS AND CO-OPERATION AMONG STATES⁴⁸

Documents relating to an agenda item of legal interest

Consideration, pursuant to General Assembly resolution 2181 (XXI) of 12 December 1966, of principles of international law concerning friendly relations and co-operation among States in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations

- (A) Consideration, in the light of the debate which took place in the Sixth Committee during the seventeenth, eighteenth, twentieth and twenty-first sessions of the General Assembly and in the 1964 and 1966 Special Committees, of the four principles listed below with a view to completing their formulation:

⁴⁷ See also section 1 (A) (ii) (7) above.

⁴⁸ See also section 1 (A) (ii) (19) above.

- a. The principle that States shall refrain in their international relations from the threat or use of force against the territorial integrity and political independence of any State, or in any other manner inconsistent with the purpose of the United Nations;
 - b. The duty of States to co-operate with one another in accordance with the Charter;
 - c. The principle of equal rights and self-determination of peoples;
 - d. The principle that States shall fulfil in good faith the obligations assumed by them in accordance with the Charter [paragraph 5 of General Assembly resolution 2181 (XXI)].
- (B) Consideration of proposals on the principle concerning the duty not to intervene in matters within the domestic jurisdiction of any State, in accordance with the Charter, with the aim of widening the area of agreement already expressed in General Assembly resolution 2131 (XX) [paragraph 6 of General Assembly resolution 2181 (XXI)].
- (C) Consideration of any additional proposals with a view to widening the areas of agreement expressed in the formulations of the 1966 Special Committee concerning the principle that States shall settle their international disputes by peaceful means in such a manner that international peace and security and justice are not endangered and the principle of sovereign equality of States, having considered as a matter of priority, the principles referred to in A and B above [paragraph 7 of General Assembly resolution 2181 (XXI)].
- (D) Submission to the General Assembly at its twenty-second session of a comprehensive report on the principles entrusted to the 1967 Special Committee for study and a draft declaration on the seven principles set forth in Assembly resolution 1815 (XVII) [paragraph 8 of General Assembly resolution 2181 (XXI)] (agenda item 6).
