PART I

DIPLOMATIC PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES

3. Interpretation—In this Part of this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—
“The Convention” means the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations signed in 1961, a copy of the English text of which is set out in the First Schedule to this Act:

“Mission” means a diplomatic mission of any State:

Expressions defined in Article 1 of the Convention have the meanings so defined.

4. Application of this Part—The provisions of this Part of this Act shall, with respect to the matters dealt with therein, have effect in substitution for any previous enactment or rule of law in force in New Zealand immediately before the commencement of this Act.

5. Diplomatic privileges and immunities—(1) Subject to subsection (6) of this section, the provisions of Articles 1, 22 to 24, and 27 to 40 of the Convention shall have the force of law in New Zealand.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the Minister, with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, may from time to time determine, either generally or in any case or class of case, the fiscal privileges which shall be accorded to any mission or persons connected with any mission, notwithstanding that the determination may extend treatment more favourable than that required by the provisions of the Convention, and may in like manner determine the terms and conditions on which those privileges may be enjoyed.

(3) For the purpose of giving effect to any custom or agreement by which New Zealand and any other State extend to each other treatment more favourable than is required by the provisions of the Convention, the Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, declare that a mission of that State and persons connected with that mission shall be accorded such immunity from jurisdiction, and inviolability, as are specified in the order:

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall apply with respect to persons to whom section 6 of this Act applies.

(4) In subsections (2) and (3) of this section, the expression “treatment more favourable” includes the according of privileges or immunities, as the case may be, to persons who under the Convention may enjoy privileges and immunities only to the extent admitted by the receiving State.

(5) Where by or by virtue of this Act immunity from jurisdiction is accorded to persons who are not diplomatic agents or persons enjoying immunity under Article 37 of the Convention, the immunity accorded to those first-mentioned persons may be waived in the manner and subject to the conditions specified in Article 32 of the Convention, and the waiver shall have the same consequences as a waiver under that Article.

(6) For the purposes of the provisions of the Articles referred to in subsection (1) of this section,—

(a) A reference in those provisions to the receiving State shall be construed as a reference to New Zealand:

(b) A reference in those provisions to a national of the receiving State shall be construed as a reference to a New Zealand citizen:

(c) The reference in paragraph 1 of Article 22 to agents of the receiving State shall be construed as including a reference to any constable and any person exercising a power of entry to premises:

(d) The reference in Article 32 to waiver by the sending State shall be construed as including a waiver by the head of the mission of the sending State or by a person for the time being performing the functions of the head of mission:

(e) Articles 35, 36, and 40 shall be construed as granting the privileges or immunities that those Articles require to be granted:

(f) The reference in paragraph 1 of Article 36 to such laws and regulations as the receiving State may adopt shall be construed as including a reference to any law in force in New Zealand relating to the quarantine, or the prohibition or restriction of the importation into, or the exportation from, New Zealand of animals, plants, or goods:

Provided that any immunity from jurisdiction that a person may possess or enjoy by virtue of subsection (1) of this section shall not be prejudiced:

(g) The reference in paragraph 4 of Article 37 to the extent to which privileges and immunities are admitted by the receiving State, and the reference in paragraph 1 of Article 38 to any additional privileges and immunities that may be granted by the receiving State, shall, so far as they relate to privileges, be construed as references to such determinations as may be made by the Minister pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, and, so far as they relate to immunities, be construed as references to such immunities as may be conferred by an Order in Council under subsection (3) of this section:

(h) The reference in paragraph 2 of Article 38 to the extent to which privileges and immunities are admitted by the receiving State shall, so far as it relates to privileges, be construed as a reference to such determinations as may be made by the Minister pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, and, so far as it relates to immunities, be construed, in relation to persons to whom section 6 of this Act applies, as a reference to immunities conferred by that section, and, in relation to other persons to whom that paragraph applies, as a reference to such immunities as may be conferred by an Order in Council under subsection (3) of this section:

(i) The reference in paragraph 1 of Article 39 to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs or such other Ministry as may be agreed shall be construed as a reference to the Department of External Affairs.

6. Immunities of certain members of the staff of a mission who are New Zealand citizens or residents—The members of the administrative and technical staff, and members of the service staff, of a mission who are New Zealand citizens or are permanently resident in New Zealand shall be accorded immunity from jurisdiction, and inviolability, in respect of official acts performed in the exercise of their functions.

7. Withdrawal of diplomatic privileges and immunities—(1) Where the Governor-General is satisfied that the privileges and immunities accorded in relation to a mission of New Zealand in any State, or to persons connected with that mission, are less than those conferred by or by virtue of this Part of this Act in relation to the mission of that State, or to persons connected with that mission, he may, by Order in Council, withdraw, modify, or restrict, in relation to that mission or to persons connected with that mission, such of the privileges and immunities so conferred to such extent as appears to him to be proper.

(2) Any Order in Council under subsection (1) of this section shall be disregarded for the purposes of paragraph (a) of the proviso to section 6 of the British Nationality and New Zealand Citizenship Act 1948 (which relates to the citizenship of the children of certain persons possessing diplomatic immunities).
