International Court of Justice

Application for review of Judgement No. 158 of the United Nations Administrative Tribunal: Advisory Opinion of 12 July 1973 193

CHAPTER VIII. DECISIONS OF NATIONAL TRIBUNALS

1. Italy

Supreme Court of Cassation (Plenary for Civil Matters)

Mrs. C. v. Intergovernmental Committee for European Migration (ICEM):
Decision of 7 June 1973

Jurisdictional immunity of subjects of international law—Distinction made by the courts of Italy and other countries between private law activities and exercise of public functions—The Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the Specialized Agencies is not intended to extend immunity to private law activities—Acts regarding the internal structure of an international organization, including the employment relationship with members of its staff, fall within the sovereign powers of subjects of international law and are therefore exempt from the jurisdiction of Italian courts 197

2. United States of America

New York County Supreme Court—Special Term: Part I Matter of Menon

Application pursuant to article 78 of the Civil Practice Law and Rules to compel judges of another court to issue an order to show cause—Dismissal of the application on the ground that whether an order to show cause shall issue involves the exercise of judicial discretion, not a ministerial act—The sovereign status of the United Nations is beyond the court authority to challenge 198
