MR. HEINER BIELEFELDT
Professor of Human Rights and Human Rights Politics
University of Erlangen-Nürnberg

Professor Dr. Dr. h.c. Heiner Bielefeldt has been Full Professor of Human Rights and Human Rights Politics at the University of Erlangen-Nürnberg since October 2009. Before taking the newly established chair for Human Rights, he was Director of the German Institute for Human Rights, which is the officially accredited national human rights institution of Germany. Between August 2010 and October 2016, Bielefeldt served as the UN Special Rapporteur on freedom of religion or belief. When discharging this mandate, he conducted ten fact-finding missions in different parts of the world and presented a dozen thematic reports to the UN General Assembly as well as the UN Human Rights Council. Bielefeldt’s research interests include different interdisciplinary facets of human rights theory and practice, with a particular focus on freedom of religion or belief. His most recent publication, together with Michael Wiener, on this subject is Religious Freedom Under Scrutiny (University of Pennsylvania Press).
