

MR. YVES SANDOZ

Professor of International Humanitarian Law

University of Fribourg

Geneva Academy of International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights

Born January 27, 1944, in Neuchâtel (Switzerland). Married, three children.

Doctor of Laws, University of Neuchâtel (Switzerland)

Numerous field missions for the International Committee of the Red Cross, between 1968 and 1972, including in Nigeria, Israel and Occupied Territories, Bangladesh and South Yemen.

Based at the International Committee of the Red Cross Headquarters from 1975 to 2000, as the Director of International Law and Policy from 1983. Member of the ICRC since 2002.

Professor of international humanitarian law at the Geneva Academy of International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights and at the University of Fribourg (Switzerland).

Author of numerous publications in international humanitarian law, penal law and on the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement.