

MR. NISUKE ANDO

Professor of International Law and Director of the Kyoto Human Rights Research Institute

Currently, Director of Kyoto Human Rights Research Institute and Professor Emeritus of Kyoto University. Education: Graduated from Department of Law Kyoto University(LL.B. 1959), completed LL.M. at its Graduate School('61), obtained Ph.D. from Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy('71). Professions: Lecturer ('65-68), Associate Professor ('68-81) and Professor of International Law('90-98) at Kyoto University; Professor of International Law at Kobe University('81-90); and Professor of International Law at Doshisha University('98-2006). Activities: Member of Human Rights Committee under the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights('87-'06, Chairperson '93-94), Member of the Permanent Court of Arbitration(2001-present), Judge of the Administrative Tribunal of the International Monetary Fund('94-present), and Membre of l'Institut de Droit International('99-present). Membership: Japanese Society of International Law ('59-present, Editor-in-Chief '91-93, President '98-'00); Life Member of American Society of International Law ('62-). Publications: Surrender, Occupation and Private Property in International Law ('91 Oxford University Press); Japan and International Law ('91 Oxford University Press); Japan and International Law - Past, Present and Future(Ed. '99 Kluwer Law International); Liber Amicorum Judge Shigeru Oda (Co-ed. '02 Kluwer Law International); Towards Implementing Universal Human Rights Standards(Ed. '04 Martinus Nijhoff). Born on 6.8.1935 in Kyoto, Japan; married with three children.