

MR. GIAN LUCA BURCI

Adjunct Professor of International Law

Academic Adviser, Global Health Centre

Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies

Geneva

Mr. Gian Luca Burci is Adjunct Professor of International Law at the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies. He has served in the Legal Office of the World Health Organization since 1998 and has been appointed Legal Counsel in 2005. Between 1989 and 1998, Mr. Burci was legal officer in the Office of the Legal Counsel of the United Nations. Mr Burci is the author of a book on the World Health Organization and of numerous articles on topics ranging from UN economic sanctions and peace-keeping operations to succession of States and the law and practice of the World Health Organization. He delivers lectures at universities in Switzerland and the United States and is a member of the Italian, American and European societies of international law.