

MR. LUCIUS CAFLISCH

*Professor Emeritus, Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, Geneva
Former Chairperson, the International Law Commission*

Mr. Lucius Caflisch (Switzerland) is Emeritus Professor of the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, which he also directed between 1984 and 1990. He served as a judge at the European Court of Human Rights, in Strasbourg, between 1998 and 2006. Mr. Caflisch is a member and former Chairperson of the United Nations International Law Commission. He served as Chairperson of the Commission's Working Group on the topic "Effects of armed conflicts on treaties" between 2007 and 2008 and was appointed Special Rapporteur in 2009. Mr. Caflisch also served as member of several arbitral tribunals and as Counsel before the International Court of Justice.

Earlier in his career, Mr. Caflisch was the Legal Advisor to the Swiss Federal Department of Foreign Affairs, a capacity in which he represented Switzerland at major international negotiations leading, inter alia, to the creation of the International Criminal Court. He is a member of the Institut de Droit International, of the Permanent Court of Arbitration, and of the Court of Conciliation and Arbitration in the Framework of the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe.

Mr. Caflisch is the author of numerous publications, including two courses at the Hague Academy, "Cent ans de règlement pacifique des différends interétatiques" and "Règles générales du droit des cours d'eau internationaux", published in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy International Law.
