

MR. ROGER S. CLARK

*Board of Governors Professor
Rutgers School of Law, Camden*

Professor Clark teaches courses in international law; international protection of human rights; international organizations; international criminal law and criminal justice policy; United States foreign relations and national security law; and criminal law. He served as a member of the United Nations Committee on Crime Prevention and Control between 1987 and 1990.

Prior to joining the Rutgers faculty in 1972, he worked for the New Zealand Justice Department and Ministry of Foreign Affairs; taught law in New Zealand; served as an American Council of Learned Societies Fellow and Doctoral Fellow at the Columbia University School of Law; interned at the United Nations; and taught at the law school of the University of Iowa.

He has been a visiting or adjunct professor at numerous institutions, including the University of Pennsylvania, the University of Miami, the University of Graz in Austria, and the University of the South Pacific (Fiji). He has taught in study abroad programs offered by Temple University and the University of San Diego and teaches regularly in the University of Salzburg's Summer School in International Criminal Law. Professor Clark serves on the editorial boards of various publications, including Criminal Law Forum: An International Journal; the Human Rights Review; and the International Lawyer. He has been the general editor of the Procedural Aspects of International Law monographs since 2004, and is a board member of several international non-governmental organizations, such as the International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy in Vancouver, B.C., and the International League for Human Rights, headquartered in New York.

In 1995 and 1996, he represented the Government of Samoa in arguing the illegality of nuclear weapons before the International Court of Justice in The Hague. Since 1995, he has represented Samoa in negotiations to create the International Criminal Court and to get the Court running successfully. He was very active in Court's Special Working Group on the Crime of Aggression which had the task of drafting an amendment to the Court's Statute to activate its nascent jurisdiction over the crime of aggression.
