

MR. DAVID FREESTONE

Professor of International Law

Senior Adviser, Office of the General Counsel, World Bank

Professor David Freestone is Lobingier Visiting Professor at The George Washington University Law School in Washington DC. In 2008 he retired from The World Bank which he joined in 1996 as Legal Adviser, Environmental Affairs. From 2001, he served as Chief Counsel for Environmentally and Socially Sustainable Development and International Law and in 2004 was promoted to Deputy General Counsel, Advisory Services. Prior to joining the World Bank, he was Professor of International Law at the University of Hull in England.

David Freestone is also a Visiting Professor at the Institute of Advanced Studies at the UN University; he is on the list of Experts on Environmental Law designated by the Secretary-General of the Permanent Court of Arbitration and is an elected member of the International Council on Environmental Law. In 2007 he was awarded the Elizabeth Haub Gold Medal for Environmental Law.

He holds the degrees of LLB and LLD from the University of Hull and an LLM from London University (Kings College). He is General Editor of Legal Aspects of Sustainable Development – a monograph series published by Martinus Nijhoff and is founder and Editor-in-Chief of the International Journal of Marine and Coastal Law (now in its 23rd year). He is a member of a number of editorial boards including the British Yearbook of International Law, the Yearbook of International Environmental Law and the Yearbook of European Environmental Law.

David Freestone has written widely on international environmental and natural resources law, particularly climate change and marine and fisheries issues. His most recent publications include: The Law of the Sea: Progress and Prospects (ed. with R. Barnes, D. Ong, Oxford 2006); Legal Aspects of Implementing the Kyoto Protocol Mechanisms (ed. with C. Streck, Oxford 2005); Legislating for Sustainable Fisheries (with W. Edeson and

E. Gudmundsdottir, World Bank, 2001; translated into French, 2004); International Law and Sustainable Development: Past Achievements and Future Challenges (ed. with Alan Boyle, Oxford, 1999).