

DR. JEAN HO

Assistant Professor

Faculty of Law

National University of Singapore

Dr. Jean Ho is Assistant Professor of Law at the National University of Singapore, where she lectures and supervises on diverse aspects of international investment law. The principal areas of her research are the law of State responsibility, the law of treaties, and investment contracts. Her forthcoming sole-authored publications include “Investment Protection Under Successive Treaties” in the ICSID Review, and “State Responsibility for Breaches of Investment Contracts” with Cambridge University Press.

Dr. Ho was educated at New York University, l’Université de Paris I (Panthéon-Sorbonne), and Cambridge University. Fluent in French and Mandarin, she divides her time between Singapore, Paris, London, and Washington DC.