

MR. ADELARDUS KILANGI

Member and President, African Union Commission on International Law

Dean of the Faculty of Law, St. Augustine University of Tanzania in Tanzania

Adelardus Kilangi serves as member of the African Union Commission on International Law (2009-2015) where he was later elected the President (2012-2014). He is also a Professor of international law, legal theory, and mining law at St. Augustine University of Tanzania in Tanzania. He previously taught law at Ruaha University College in Tanzania, Tumaini University - Dar es salaam College in Tanzania, and the Open University of Tanzania, also in Tanzania. Prior to that, he served as Country Programme Manager for the Southern African Aids Trust in Tanzania, and Programme Officer for DANIDA as well as Legal Advisor to the Danish Embassy in Tanzania, respectively. He has also worked as Programme Officer to the Environmental, Human Rights Care and Gender Organization, a local NGO, while prior to that he worked as Legal Advisor with the Resource Mobilization Unit of the University of Dar es salaam in Tanzania. He is an Advocate of the High Court of Tanzania, a member of the East African Law Society, and member of the Pan African Lawyers Union. He has published a number of books and articles in law, specifically in the area of regional integration law, mining law, and general international law. He has carried out a number of consultancies and research works especially in the area of institutional and organizational development, as well as the area of curriculum and academic programme development.