

MR. ANDRE NOLLKAEMPER

Professor of Public International Law and Vice-Dean for Research

Faculty of Law of the University of Amsterdam

André Nollkaemper is Professor of Public International Law and Vice-Dean for Research at the Faculty of Law of the University of Amsterdam. He also is (external) Advisor to the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Netherlands. He is Vice President of the European Society of International Law and member of the Royal Academy of Sciences of the Netherlands.

Prior to accepting to serve as (external) Advisor to the Minister of Foreign Affairs, he was member of Advisory Commission on Public International Law of the Netherlands and of-counsel at Böhler, attorneys in Amsterdam.

His practical experience includes cases before the European Court on Human Rights, the Special Court for Sierra Leone, the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia and national courts .

Between 2010 and 2015 he conducted a research project on shared responsibility in international law funded by the European Research Council, the SHARES Project. He published widely on questions of general international law, international responsibility, the relations between international and national law, and international environmental law (Publication list)