

MS. VALERIE OOSTERVELD

Professor

Associate Director

Centre for Transitional Justice and Post-Conflict Reconstruction

University of Western Ontario, Faculty of Law

Valerie Oosterveld is a full Professor at the University of Western Ontario Faculty of Law in Canada. She is an internationally recognized authority and scholar on gender issues within international criminal law. She has published widely on the interpretation of sexual and gender-based crimes by international criminal courts and tribunals, as well as gender-sensitive investigation and prosecution methods. Her publications include (with Indira Rosenthal and Susana SáCouto, eds.), Gender and International Criminal Law (Oxford University Press, 2022), and (with Margaret M. deGuzman, eds.), The Elgar Companion to the International Criminal Court (Edward Elgar Publishing, 2020).

Prof. Oosterveld is the Associate Director of her university's Centre for Transitional Justice and Post-Conflict Reconstruction and an active member of the Canadian Partnership for International Justice, which researches domestic and international accountability for genocide, crimes against humanity, and war crimes. She was awarded the university's Faculty Scholar designation from 2017-2019. She served as an Associate Dean at the Faculty of Law from 2014-2018, and was a member of the Royal Society of Canada's College of New Scholars, Artists and Scientists from 2014-2021. In 2010, she served on the Canadian delegation to the Review Conference of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court (ICC) in Kampala, Uganda.

Before joining the Faculty of Law in 2005, Valerie served in the Legal Affairs Bureau of Canada's Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade. In this role, she focused the ICC, the International Criminal Tribunals for the Former Yugoslavia and Rwanda, and the Special Court for Sierra Leone. She served on the Canadian delegation to various ICC-related negotiations, including the Assembly of States Parties. Prior to joining the Legal Affairs Bureau, Valerie was a member of the Canadian delegation to the 1998 UN Diplomatic Conference of Plenipotentiaries on the Establishment of an ICC. In this role, she negotiated various gender provisions of the Rome Statute.
