

JUAN JOSÉ RUDA SANTOLARIA

Principal Professor, Department of Law, Pontifical Catholic University of Peru Member, International Law Commission

Professor Ruda has a degree in law from the Pontifical Catholic University of Peru (PUCP) and a PhD. by University of Deusto (Bilbao, Spain).

He is a Member of the International Law Commission of the United Nations for the 2017-2021 quinquennium, Member of the Permanent Court of Arbitration (The Hague), First Alternate Judge for Peru in the Court of Justice of the Andean Community, Member of the Hispano-Luso-American Institute of International Law and Life Member of the Inter-American Bar Association (IABA).

Professor Ruda currently serves as Senior Counsellor of the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Peru and Principal Legal Adviser of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Peru. He has also been Secretary of the ad hoc Advisory Committee of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Peru on the process of maritime delimitation with Chile and Member of the Delegation of Peru before the International Court of Justice (The Hague) in this process. He has been decorated with the most important honors in Peru for his outstanding participation in the process before the International Court of Justice concerning the maritime delimitation between Peru and Chile.

Furthermore, Professor Ruda is Principal Professor at the Department of Law of the PUCP and he has been lecturer at various international fora, such as at the XXXIII External Course of the International Law Academy of The Hague, held in Lima in December 2005; the XXXV Annual Course on International Law organized by the Inter-American Juridical Committee of the Organization of American States (OAS), held in Rio de Janeiro, in August 2008; and the Course "Current Trends in International Law: Regional Capacity Building Programme for the Promotion of International Law", organized by UNITAR (United Nations Institute for Training and Research) and the Diplomatic Academy of Peru, held in Lima, in July 2009.

He is the author of several publications in the area of International Law, which includes the article “Vatican and the Holy See” of the series Oxford Bibliographies in International Law, published by Oxford University Press, and the book “Los Sujetos de Derecho Internacional: El caso de la Iglesia Católica y del Estado de la Ciudad del Vaticano”, published by the PUCP.