

Dr Philippa Webb

*Professor of Public International Law
King's College London*

Dr Philippa Webb is Professor of Public International Law at The Dickson Poon School of Law, King's College London. She joined Law School in 2012 after a decade in international legal practice. She was previously visiting Assistant Professor in the Advanced LLM Programme at Leiden University (2009-2011). She has been Visiting Professor at Université Paris X Nanterre (2013-14) and ESADE Law School (2014-15). She was an Adjunct Professor of Law on Pepperdine University's London program (2014-15).

Dr Webb holds a doctorate (JSD) and an LLM from Yale Law School. She obtained the University Medal in her LLB and the University Medal and First Class Honours in her BA (Asian Studies), both of which were awarded by the University of New South Wales in Australia.

Dr Webb has extensive experience in international courts and tribunals. She served as the Special Assistant and Legal Officer to Judge Rosalyn Higgins during her Presidency of the International Court of Justice (2006-2009) and, prior to that, as the Judicial Clerk to Judges Higgins and Owada (2004-2005). She was the Associate Legal Adviser to Prosecutor Luis Moreno-Ocampo at the International Criminal Court (2005-2006).

She is on the International Advisory Panel for the American Law Institute's project Restatement Fourth, Foreign Relations Law of the United States. She is co-chair of the Editorial Committee of the Journal of International Criminal Justice and on the editorial board of The Leiden Journal of International Law.

Dr Webb advises governments, organizations and individuals on international legal issues, in particular the law on immunity. She is the co-author with Lady Hazel Fox QC of The Law of State Immunity (OUP 2013, revised edition 2015), which has been cited by leading national courts. Her other publications include International Judicial Integration and Fragmentation (OUP 2013, paperback 2016), The Genocide Convention: The Travaux Préparatoires (Martinus Nijhoff 2008) (with Hiram Abtahi), and The Right to a Fair Trial in International Law (forthcoming 2017, with Amal Clooney and Howard Morrison QC).
