AGENDA

The agenda adopted by the Commission for its fourteenth session consisted of the following items :

1. Law of treaties
2. Future work in the field of codification and progressive development of international law (General Assembly resolution 1686 (XVI))
3. Question of special missions (General Assembly resolution 1687 (XVI))
4. Co-operation with other bodies
5. Date and place of the fifteenth session
6. Other business

In the course of the session, the Commission held forty-five meetings. It considered all the items on its agenda except item 3 (Question of special missions).

At its twelfth session, in 1960, the Commission had, in pursuance of General Assembly resolution 1453 (XIV) of 7 December 1959, requested the Secretariat¹ to undertake a study of the juridical regime of historic waters and to extend the scope of the preliminary study outlined in paragraph 8 of the memorandum on historic bays, prepared by the Secretariat in connexion with the first United Nations Conference on the Law of the Sea.² This study (A/CN.4/143) was submitted to the present session, but as the question was not on the agenda, it was not considered by the Commission.
