Agenda item 1

SPECIAL MISSIONS

Articles 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38 and 43 as adopted by the Drafting Committee

Article 32

Administrative and technical staff

Members of the administrative and technical staff of the special mission shall enjoy the privileges and immunities specified in articles 24 to 31, except that the immunity from civil and administrative jurisdiction of the receiving State specified in paragraph 2 of article 26 shall not extend to acts performed outside the course of their duties.

Article 33

Members of the service staff

Members of the service staff of the special mission shall enjoy immunity from the jurisdiction of the receiving State in respect of acts performed in the course of their duties and exemption from dues and taxes on the emoluments they receive by reason of their employment, and exemption from social security legislation as provided in article 28.

Article 34

Private staff

Private staff of the members of the special mission shall be exempt from dues and taxes on the emoluments they receive by reason of their employment. In all other respects, they may enjoy privileges and immunities only to the extent admitted by the receiving State. However, the receiving State must exercise its jurisdiction over those persons in such a manner as not to interfere unduly with the performance of the functions of the special mission.

Article 35

Members of the family

1. The members of the families of representatives of the sending State on the special mission and of members of its diplomatic staff shall, if they are not nationals of the receiving State, enjoy the privileges and immunities specified in articles 24 to 31.

2. Members of the families of the administrative and technical staff of the special mission shall, if they are not nationals of or permanently resident in the receiving State, enjoy the privileges and immunities specified in article 32.

Article 36

Nationals of the receiving State and persons permanently resident in the territory of the receiving State

1. Except in so far as additional privileges and immunities may be recognized by the receiving State, the representatives of the sending State on the special mission and the members of its diplomatic staff who are nationals of or permanently resident in that State shall enjoy immunity from jurisdiction and inviolability only in respect of official acts performed in the exercise of their functions.

2. Other members of the special mission and private staff who are nationals of or permanently resident in the receiving State shall enjoy privileges and immunities only to the extent granted to them by the receiving State. However, the receiving State must exercise its jurisdiction over those persons in such a manner as not to interfere unduly with the performance of the functions of the special mission.

Article 37Duration of privileges and immunities

1. Every person entitled to privileges and immunities shall enjoy them from the moment he enters the territory of the receiving State for the purpose of performing his functions in the special mission, or, if already in its territory, from the moment when his appointment is notified to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs or such other organ of the receiving State as may be agreed.
2. When the functions of a person enjoying privileges and immunities have come to an end, such privileges and immunities shall normally cease at the moment when he leaves the country, or on expiry of a reasonable period in which to do so, but shall subsist until that time, even in the case of armed conflict. However, with respect to acts performed by such a person in the exercise of his functions as a member of the special mission, immunity shall continue to subsist.
3. In the event of the death of a member of the special mission, the members of his family shall continue to enjoy the privileges and immunities to which they are entitled until the expiry of a reasonable period in which to leave the country.

Article 38Property of a member of the special mission or of a member of his family in the event of death

1. In the event of the death of a member of the special mission or of a member of his family, if the deceased was not a national of or permanently resident in the receiving State, the receiving State shall permit the withdrawal of the movable property of the deceased, with the exception of any property acquired in the country the export of which was prohibited at the time of his death.
2. Estate, succession and inheritance duties shall not be levied on movable property which is in the receiving State solely because of the presence there of the deceased as a member of the special mission or as one of the family of a member of the mission.

Article 43

Right to leave the territory of the receiving State

1. The receiving State must, even in case of armed conflict, grant facilities to enable persons enjoying privileges and immunities, other than nationals of the receiving State, and members of the families of such persons irrespective of their nationality, to leave at the earliest possible moment. In particular it must, in case of need, place at their disposal the necessary means of transport for themselves and their property.

2. The receiving State is required to grant the sending State facilities for removing the archives of the special mission from the territory of the receiving State.
