Article 2

Scope of the present articles

1. The present articles apply to representatives of States to international organizations of universal character.^{1/}

2. The fact that the present articles do not refer to representatives of States to other international organizations is without prejudice to the application to these representatives of any of the rules set forth in the present articles to which they would be subject independently of these articles. Likewise, it shall not prevent member States of these other organizations from agreeing that the present articles apply to their representatives of the said organizations.
