Relations between States and international organizations

DRAFT ARTICLES OF REPRESENTATIVES OF STATES TO INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Text of articles 45 to 47 adopted by the Drafting Committee

Article 45

Professional activity

The permanent representative and the members of the diplomatic staff of the permanent mission shall not practice for personal profit any professional or commercial activity in the host State.

Section IV. End of the functions of the permanent mission or of its members

Article 46

Modes of termination

The functions of a member of the permanent mission come to an end, inter alia:

(a) on notification by the sending State to the Organization or to the host State that the functions of the member of the permanent mission...
permanent mission have come to an end;

(b) if the membership of the sending State in the Organization is terminated or suspended.

Article 47
Facilities of departure

The host State must, even in case of armed conflict, grant facilities in order to enable persons enjoying privileges and immunities, other than nationals of the host State, and members of the families of such persons irrespective of their nationality, to leave at the earliest possible moment. It must, in particular, in case of need, place at their disposal the necessary means of transport for themselves and their property.

Article 48
Protection of premises and archives

1. When the functions of the permanent mission come to an end, the host State must, even in case of armed conflict, respect and protect the premises as well as the property and archives of the permanent mission. The sending State must withdraw that property and those archives within a reasonable time.

2. The host State is required to grant the sending State, even in case of armed conflict, facilities for removing the archives of the permanent mission from the territory of the host State.
Article 49

Consultations between the sending State, the host State and the Organization

Consultations shall be held between the sending State, the host State and the Organization on any question arising out of the application of the present articles.
