Articles 2, 63, 64, 64 bis and 65.

Relations between States and international organizations

DRAFT ARTICLES ON REPRESENTATIVES OF STATES TO INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Part IV. Delegations of States to organs and to conferences

Text of articles 2, 63, 64, 64 bis and 65 adopted by the Drafting Committee

GE.70-11969

2 p.

Article 11

Privileges and immunities in case of multiple functions

When members of a permanent diplomatic mission, a consular post, a permanent mission or a permanent observer mission in the host State are included in a delegation to an organ or to a conference, their privileges and immunities as members of their diplomatic mission, consular post, permanent mission or permanent observer mission shall not be affected.

Article 12

Principle of single representation

A delegation to an organ or to a conference may represent only one State.

Article 13

Appointment of the members of the delegation

Subject to the provisions of articles 14 and 17, the sending State may freely appoint the members of its delegation to an organ or to a conference.

Article 14 bis

Nationality of the members of the delegation

The representatives and members of the diplomatic staff of a delegation to an organ or to a conference should in principle be of the nationality of the sending State. They may not be appointed from persons having the nationality of the host State, if that State objects, when it may do so by this.

Article 15

Credentials of representatives

1. The credentials of a representative to an organ shall be issued either by the Head of State or by the Head of Government or by the Minister for Foreign Affairs or by another competent authority if that is allowed by the practice followed in the Organization, and shall be transmitted to the organization.
2. The credentials of a representative in the delegation to a conference shall be issued either by the Head of State or by the Head of Government or by the Minister for Foreign Affairs or by another competent authority if that is allowed in relation to the conference in question, and shall be transmitted to the conference.
