MEMORANDUM OF 28 DECEMBER 1951 FROM THE GOVERNMENT OF PAKISTAN (ORIGINAL IN ENGLISH)

1. There are no laws, regulations, decrees or judicial decisions regarding the negotiation and conclusion of treaties in Pakistan. The matter is governed by custom and usage. Since the creation of Pakistan as a separate Dominion of the Commonwealth, i.e., 15 August 1947, its treaty-making power has been exercised by the Government of Pakistan. When a treaty is to be negotiated as between Governments, the Government of Pakistan authorizes its representatives to exercise its treaty-making powers. These representatives receive Full Powers signed by the Governor-General which authorize them to negotiate, conclude and sign the treaty or other bilateral and multilateral agreements on behalf of Pakistan. When the treaty is to be negotiated and concluded as between Heads of States, the powers of the Head of State are exercised by the Governor General.

2. For agreements of a non-political character of minor importance, certain functionaries are recognized as competent to exercise the treaty-making power of Pakistan to the extent it is delegated to them. Such functionaries are, by virtue of their offices and duties, competent to enter into certain agreements without the requirement of ratification. Thus, for instance, the Director-General of Posts and Telegraphs of Pakistan can enter into bilateral agreements concerning postal and telecommunication matters for which no subsequent ratification is necessary.

3. Ratification of a treaty or other international agreement takes the form of a document—an instrument of ratification. If the treaty or agreement is in Governmental form, the instrument of ratification is signed by the Foreign Minister. If the treaty or agreement is in the Head of State form, the instrument of ratification is signed by the Governor-General. Accession to multilateral international agreements, conventions, protocols, etc., is done by the Government of Pakistan through an instrument of accession, notified by the Foreign Minister or by the Envoy of Pakistan accredited to the country to which the accession is to be notified, or by the Permanent Representative of Pakistan in the United Nations or any of its allied organizations.
