ARTICLE 107

TEXT OF ARTICLE 107

Nothing in the present Charter shall invalidate or preclude action, in relation to any State which during the Second World War has been an enemy of any signatory to the present Charter, taken or authorized as a result of that war by the Governments having responsibility for such action.

NOTE

During the period under review, no decisions requiring treatment under this Article were taken by the organs of the United Nations.

1 For a reference to Article 107, see "letter dated 7 March 1966 from the representative of the USSR, to the President of the Security Council", relating to the application by the German Democratic Republic for membership in the United Nations (S C, 21st yr., Suppl. for Jan.-March, p. 194, S/7184).
