ARTICLE 28

TEXT OF ARTICLE 28

1. The Security Council shall be so organized as to be able to function continuously. Each member of the Security Council shall for this purpose be represented at all times at the seat of the Organization.

2. The Security Council shall hold periodic meetings at which each of its members may, if it so desires, be represented by a member of the government or by some other specially designated representative.

3. The Security Council may hold meetings at such places other than the seat of the Organization as in its judgment will best facilitate its work.

NOTE

1. No decision requiring treatment under this Article has been taken by the organs of the United Nations in the period under review.

2. The Security Council has held no periodic meetings as provided for in Article 28 (2). 1/

3. Nor has the Security Council during the period covered held any meetings outside the seat of the United Nations.

1/ At its 501st plenary meeting on 23 November 1954, under the item "Admission of new Members to the United Nations", the General Assembly adopted resolution 817 (IX) suggesting to the Council that "... the Security Council consider the desirability of invoking the provisions of paragraph 2 of Article 28 of the Charter to help resolve the problem".
