TEXT OF ARTICLE 59

The Organization shall, where appropriate, initiate negotiations among the states concerned for the creation of any new specialized agencies required for the accomplishment of the purposes set forth in Article 55.

NOTE

During the period under review, no negotiations were initiated toward the creation of any new specialized agencies. It should be noted, however, that during the period, the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO) was converted into a specialized agency. In 1985, the General Assembly and the Economic and Social Council received communications from several States on their notifications for the entry into force of the UNIDO Constitution, as was required under Article 25(1) of the Constitution.\(^1\) The Organization also arranged for a relationship agreement between the United Nations and UNIDO.\(^2\) For a more detailed analysis of the steps leading up to the entry into force of the relationship agreement, it is advisable to consult the studies in this supplement for Articles 57 and 63 of the Charter.
