The United Nations shall establish under its authority an international trusteeship system for the administration and supervision of such territories as may be placed thereunder by subsequent individual agreements. These territories are hereinafter referred to as trust territories.

NOTE

1. The international trusteeship system for the administration and supervision of certain Territories was established during the first session of the General Assembly. There were no decisions explicitly bearing on the establishment of the trusteeship system during the current period under review.

2. Although the question of the supervision of Trust Territories was not raised, the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples established by the General Assembly in its resolution 1654 (XVI) of 27 November 1961 continued to make observations and recommendations to the General Assembly concerning the implementation of the Declaration in the case of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands. This question is treated under Article 83 in the present Supplement.
