TEXT OF ARTICLE 91

The Trusteeship Council shall, when appropriate, avail itself of the assistance of the Economic and Social Council and of the specialized agencies in regard to matters with which they are respectively concerned.

INTRODUCTORY NOTE

1. The procedures for collaboration between the Trusteeship Council, on the one hand, and the Economic and Social Council and the specialized agencies, on the other, were established at an early period and have been fully recorded in the Repertory and its Supplements.

2. During the period under review, these procedures were not elaborated further and the material dealt with in the general survey below is confined to the extent to which they were put into practice.

3. Since there was no material requiring in-depth treatment, an analytical summary of practice has been omitted from this Supplement.

GENERAL SURVEY

4. During the period under review, the Trusteeship Council did not request assistance either from the Economic and Social Council or from any of the specialized agencies.

5. With regard to the specialized agencies, no representatives have participated in the work of the Council, since there were no trust territories left.
