TEXT OF ARTICLE 91

The Trusteeship Council shall, when appropriate, avail itself of the assistance of the Economic and Social Council and of the specialized agencies in regard to matters with which they are respectively concerned.

INTRODUCTORY NOTE

1. The procedures for collaboration between the Trusteeship Council, on the one hand, and the Economic and Social Council and the specialized agencies, on the other, were established at an early period and have been fully recorded in the Repertory and its Supplements.

2. During the period under review, these procedures were not elaborated further and the material dealt with in the general survey below is confined to the extent to which they were put into practice.

3. As in the previous Supplements, the section on an analytical summary of practice is omitted in the present study due to a lack of material requiring in-depth treatment.

GENERAL SURVEY

4. During the period under review, the Trusteeship Council did not request assistance either from the Economic and Social Council or from any of the specialized agencies.

5. With regard to the specialized agencies, representatives of the International Labour Organization (ILO), the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO), the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) and the World Health Organization (WHO) participated in the work of the Council, at its regular sessions.

6. At the forty-ninth session of the Trusteeship Council, the representative of UNESCO made a statement on the annual report of the Administering Authority on the Trust Territory concerning UNESCO's programme of assistance in that Trust Territory.¹
