TEXT OF ARTICLE 94

1. Each Member of the United Nations undertakes to comply with the decision of the International Court of Justice in any case to which it is a party.
2. If any party to a case fails to perform the obligations incumbent upon it under a judgment rendered by the Court, the other party may have recourse to the Security Council, which may, if it deems necessary, make recommendations or decide upon measures to be taken to give effect to the judgment.

NOTE

No question concerning the interpretation or application of Article 94 arose during the period under review.¹

¹It may be noted that, during the period under review, the Court began to include in its Yearbook, under the chapter on the work of the Court for that year, an appendix entitled "Action pursuant to decisions of the Court". This appendix reproduced, without comment, information on such action received in the Registry of the Court. See ICJ, Yearbook 1968-1969, appendix to chapter VI, at p. 114.
